

Get the books
Times-8/18/04

---

HISTORICAL HAPPENINGS

---

FROM THE FILES OF THE TIMES.

---

100 YEARS AGO

---

August 18, 1904

The water in the Platte River had fallen so rapidly the past week, that everybody was fishing with forks, and fish were so plentiful that the price fell to 3¢ per pound and many nice carp were sold at a nickel a piece.